Public-Policy Advocacy

SHRM's public-policy positions are developed with member and volunteer input and subject to board approval. SHRM then advocates these positions with member support on Capitol Hill, in state legislatures and before federal regulatory agencies to advance the interests of the HR profession.

SHRM facilitates and encourages member involvement in the public-policy process through the Advocacy Team (A-Team). The A-Team was developed as a way to assist HR advocates—professionals like you—in making their voices heard on public-policy issues impacting the workplace. Members engage throughout the year in letter-writing campaigns and face-to-face interaction with lawmakers and their staffs to share the HR perspective and discuss workplace issues.

A-Team members also receive e-mail alerts that provide the latest updates on federal and state public-policy developments and regulatory changes, as well as ways they can have an impact on key issues of the day.

advocacy.shrm.org

Legislative Hot Topics

HR public-policy issues are certain to dominate the discussion on Capitol Hill and in federal agencies. Key issues for SHRM to focus on in 2017 include:

- Possible changes to the Affordable Care Act
- Immigration efforts, including worksite enforcement
- Advancing workplace flexibility options that work for both employees and employers

advocacy.shrm.org

In 2016, approximately 750 SHRM members advocated on behalf of the HR profession, conducting face-to-face meetings with their legislators on Capitol Hill, in offices throughout a number of state capitols and in district offices across the country.
