A Message from Our President

As a dedicated HR professional, you understand how the world of work has become increasingly complex, volatile and fast-paced. The issues of the day—from the skills gap to immigration, sexual harassment and more—show up in the workplace. The practice of HR requires strategy, creativity and flexibility, as well as the ability to anticipate and shape the future. HR’s leadership has never been more critical to our businesses and our economy’s health. This is why I am so proud of this profession and our dedicated members.

Today, we stand on the shoulders of the people who founded SHRM as the American Society for Personnel Administration (ASPA) in 1948. They set in motion one of the great forces for good in this world. It began from a simple notion that HR practitioners, those most familiar with the workplace, should have a say in how the world of work is regulated and built. From the beginning, we have sought to courageously drive change rather than to be driven by it. From this bold idea in Berea, Ohio, SHRM has blossomed into a global presence.

It is also why SHRM remains firmly committed to providing an expanding array of innovative resources, events and networking opportunities—as well as offering the world’s pre-eminent HR certifications, the SHRM-CP and SHRM-SCP. This guide is designed to provide a helpful summary of all the benefits SHRM membership offers. Keep it handy—you will likely use different resources in different ways as you advance through your career as a practitioner, advocate and trusted advisor for the people you serve. Our more than 318,000 members tell us daily about the value of SHRM membership. We have guided, developed and given a powerful voice to HR professionals for 75 years. As you grow in this dynamic, evolving profession, having SHRM as your career partner will enrich your professional journey.

Sincerely,

Johnny C. Taylor, Jr., SHRM-SCP
President & CEO

SHRMConnect
Meet other HR professionals and build your network, or get help with your HR-related questions in over 20 different online communities.
[shrm.org/connect]

Local SHRM Chapter
Membership in one of our local chapters gives you access to a local network of HR professionals. As a member of a local chapter, you will have access to monthly programming, community networking opportunities, certification prep courses, local philanthropy, and volunteer opportunities.

Getting involved in a dynamic local community is a great opportunity to build relationships and share best practices with local professionals.

Join a chapter today for educational programs as well as products and services in your community that can broaden your skills and make you more valuable to your organization. SHRM membership and chapter membership are the perfect combination to expand and enrich your professional experience.

Each of SHRM’s 556 affiliated chapters has its own dues, bylaws and application process.

SHRM also has member forums in select countries to encourage local networking among SHRM members located outside the U.S.

Student Memberships
Those enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate degree-seeking program can join SHRM as student members.

With over 200 affiliated student chapters and more than 23,000 student members, SHRM helps guide the future of the HR profession by providing resources to support their studies, launch their careers and develop their career paths. Student member benefits include:
- Digital issues of HR Magazine
- Career resources found on SHRM.org, such as resume templates, articles and toolkits
- Upgraded access to Internships.com
- Academic scholarship opportunities
- Reduced rates for events, including the SHRM Annual Conference & Expo

And much more

Upon graduation, student members can upgrade to professional membership with a substantial introductory discount on dues, making it affordable to remain a SHRM member and access important resources to support their new role as an HR practitioner.

Details about student membership eligibility can be found online.

Elevating the Voice of HR with Policymakers
Federal and state lawmakers rely on SHRM—the voice of all things work—to inform and shape policy solutions that benefit work, workers and the workplace.

Policymakers also rely on the voice of SHRM members to inform legislation from its inception and shape enduring policy to best address the needs of employees and employers. SHRM created the A-Team, which is the core driver of positive workplace policy in action, and encourages all SHRM members to join and become an advocate on behalf of the HR profession.

A-Team membership includes access to exclusive e-mail alerts that provide the latest updates on federal, state and regulatory public-policy developments, as well as ways you can engage on these issues.

Advocacy in Action
We ensure that SHRM members and our affiliates have the opportunities, tools and resources necessary to elevate the voice of HR across all levels of government.

SHRM leverages the voice of the Enterprise Network and Executive Council to engage directly with members of Congress and key workplace regulatory bodies such as the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the U.S. Department of Labor.

SHRM advances workplace policy in state legislatures and localities across the country – directly advocating in California and New York state and local legislatures.

SHRM’s Policy Priorities
At SHRM, we are focused on six key policy areas that have a meaningful impact on the workplace:
• Workforce Development
• Workplace Equity
• Workplace Immigration
• Workplace Governance
• Workplace Flexibility & Leave
• Workplace Health Care

Public Policy Hot Topics
HR public policy issues dominate the discussion on Capitol Hill and in federal agencies. Key issues that SHRM focuses on include:
• Education Assistance
• Paid Leave
• Workplace Immigration
• Workplace Equity
